LAM RIM BRISTOL BUDDHIST CENTRE

H.E. SERKONG RINPOCHE

Public Talk

Buddhism in Daily Life

Friday 25 September
7pm-9pm

(Suggested donation: £5)

Teachings

Stages of the Path to Enlightenment

Saturday & Sunday
26/27 September
10:00am – 5:00pm

(Suggested donations:
£15:00 per day*)

The Public Talk

Cultivating an awakened outlook to our daily life both improves our experiences in this life and helps create better causes for the future. Rinpoche's talk will benefit those with passing interest as well as those already familiar with the Buddhist way of life.

The Teachings

Rinpoche will teach from Lama Tsong Khapa's Middle-Length Treatise on the Stages of the Path to Enlightenment (the 'Lam Rim') – a shorter version of his previous Great Treatise. The Lam Rim comprises a series of reflections and meditations covering the complete Buddhist path. The author, Tsong Khapa was the teacher of the first Dalai Lama, Gendun Drupa.

H.E. Serkong Tsenshap Rinpoche II

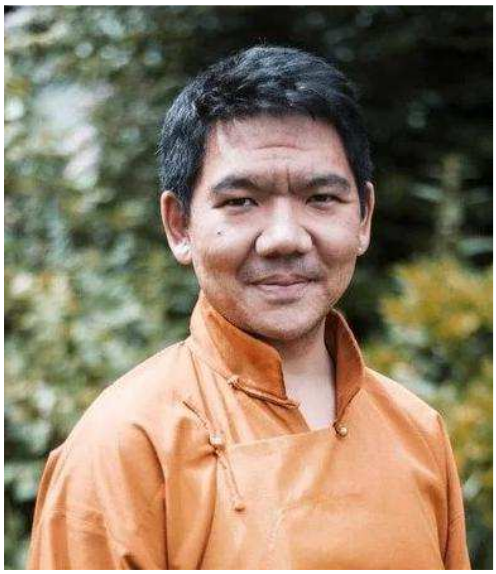
Rinpoche was recognised at 3½ years old as the reincarnation of Kyabje Tsenshap Serkong Tugse Rinpoche (1914–1983), one of the seven Tsenshabs, or master debate partners, to His Holiness the 14th Dalai Lama. Rinpoche is known for his ability to transmit the profound teachings of Tibetan Buddhism with clarity, warmth, and accessibility.

At the weekend teachings, a light vegetarian/vegan lunch is included. Please bring food for special dietary requirements. Donations will be used to cover the costs of the events.*

12 Victoria Place Bedminster Bristol BS3 3BP
info@lamrim.org.uk

Lam Rim Buddhist Centre, Wales

H.E. SERKONG RINPOCHE



Jewels of the Awakened Heart

Friday evening to
Sunday afternoon
2-4 October

Residential or onsite course

Overview

The teachings of the Bodhisattva in Everyday Life will take participants on a journey through the development of bodhicitta, and the integration of the Lam Rim into daily experience.

The teachings will offer practical and contemplative guidance on how ordinary situations - relationships, difficulties, responsibilities, work, family life and community life - can become part of the path when approached with altruistic motivation and a deeper understanding of the mind.

These teachings are suitable both for those already familiar with the Mahayana tradition and for those who wish to understand more directly how the teachings on the Bodhisattva path can guide and transform daily life.

H.E. Serkong Tsenshap Rinpoche II

H.E Serkong Tsenshap Rinpoche is the recognized reincarnation of Kyabje Tsenshap Serkong Tugse Rinpoche (1914–1983), one of the seven Tsenshabs, or master debate partners, to His Holiness the 14th Dalai Lama.

From 1948 until his passing in 1983, Tsenshap Serkong Tugse Rinpoche served His Holiness with unwavering dedication, transmitting to him numerous lineages, initiations, and oral instructions, while also guiding many disciples across the Tibetan Buddhist world. Today, H.E Serkong Tsenshap Rinpoche is recognized for his ability to transmit the profound teachings of Tibetan Buddhism with clarity, warmth, and accessibility.

His teachings, marked by depth of knowledge, humility, and a touch of humour, resonate with both monastic and lay audiences. He regards it as both a privilege and responsibility to carry forward the activities of his predecessor, aspiring to preserve and share the Dharma in a manner that meets the needs of the modern world.

Everyone is welcome to attend Buddhist teachings freely, with no donation required. However, the Centre relies on the kindness and generosity of the community to remain open and continue offering teachings and retreats.
For suggested donations, booking and more details, please visit https://www.lamrimcentre.org.uk/courses/p/serkong-rinpoche

Lam Rim Buddhist Centre, Pentwyn Manor, Penrhos, Raglan, Usk NP15 2LE
lamrimwalesmanagers@gmail.com, Mobile: 07301 274 625